

Chris Seiple's presentation summary

Conceptualizing, Advancing & Institutionalizing Religious Freedom: Collaborating & Coordinating between Governments & Grassroots

Key points of presentation:

- Religious literacy and pluralism
- Conceptualizing religion in foreign policy: The difference between religious freedom and religious engagement
- Advancing international religious freedom: advocating or building
- Institutionalizing in-country and international religious freedom top-down or bottom-up? Or both? How American government and civil society work together on religious freedom for the country and the global community.